Join the campus and community as we read, discuss, learn and grow through our exploration of Wrecked: A Novel, by Maria Padian. Wrecked: A Novel is available at the SDSU Bookstore, and the South Dakota Art Museum.

100 copies were printed by SDSU Honors College at $.00 each. Printed on Recycled Paper. Ad257  8/16

sdstate.edu/common-read

Sponsored by the Van D. & Barbara B. Fishback Honors College
For more information call 605-688-5268

#RapeCultureIsWhen Seventeenth-Century Spanish Literature Speaks to Our Me Too Moment
Tuesday, September 25, 7:00 - 8:30 p.m., Volstorff Ballroom, Student Union
The sheer number of tweets generated by the #RapeCultureIsWhen and #MeToo movements demonstrates the need to thoughtfully analyze and discuss how our social institutions and cultural practices normalize sexual violence in all its forms. An analysis of the seventeenth-century novels by Spanish author Miguel de Cervantes can facilitate these conversations, challenging readers to examine their own beliefs about rape culture, sexual violence, and inequality. Sponsored by the CAHSS Herbert Cheever Jr. Liberal Arts Lecture.

CARE Fair
Thursday, October 4, 10:00 a.m.- 2:00 p.m., Main Street, Student Union
Focused on raising awareness and fostering prevention of sexual assault and the ways we can CARE for others and ourselves, this Main Street fair will introduce students to the myriad campus and community resources dedicated to their wellbeing.

Professionals Panel
Tuesday, October 9, 7:00-8:30 p.m., Bailey Rotunda D
A panel of professionals with discuss their roles in the prevention of and response to sexual assault.

Take Back the Night
Wednesday, October 24, 7:00-8:30 p.m., City/County Government Building, S20 3rd Street
Take Back the Night is an international movement with the mission of ending sexual, relationship and domestic violence in all forms. The campus and Brookings community will come together to rally and support survivors by walking together to the SDSU campus and listening to stories from people whose lives have been affected by sexual assault. Sponsored by the Brookings Human Rights Commission.

Writing as Reflection: Exploring Relationships
Wednesday, October 31, 7:00-8:30 p.m., Wagner Hall 114
An evening of guided journaling focusing on relationships present in our lives. Participants will explore and reflect upon both self and others as a means of discovery and expression. They will also learn about methods and efficacy of journaling.

Griffith Honors Forum Lecture: Annie E. Clark and Andrea Pino
Monday, November 5, 7:00-8:30 p.m., Larson Memorial Concert Hall, Performing Arts Center
Social justice advocates and co-founders of End Rape on Campus Annie E. Clark and Andrea Pino will share their vision for sexual assault awareness and prevention at the Griffith Honors Forum Lecture. Free tickets required for admission will be available on the Common Read website beginning October 7 at 12:00 p.m. Sponsored by the Van D. and Barbara B. Fishback Honors College, the Brookings Human Rights Commission and the Griffith Honors Endowment.